

Statement of Intent

This document details the arrangements for the effective management of health, safety and welfare provision at The Write Time (TWT). This document sets out our commitment to provide and maintain safe working conditions for our employees and others who may be affected by our activities. The main legislation covering this policy is the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 and regulations made under that Act. The Write Time will ensure that the objectives of this statement are communicated to our employees, initially through our induction training. We will also monitor progress towards these objectives at the senior management level and we will review them annually in consultation with our employees and other interested parties. The Write Time is aware that the Managing Director (Chris Murray) is ultimately responsible for health and safety and the senior managers within the company are also individually and collectively responsible for health and safety. The Managing Director has Debbie Brindle-Carter to lead company-wide Health and Safety as the 'Competent Person'.

We recognise that the key to successful health and safety management is to ensure each employee is competent to carry out their responsibilities. To this end, we have developed and implemented training where necessary which clearly defines who is responsible for training and identifies what training each individual needs, based on the results of our risk assessments.

Health and Safety policy statement

Employees, Young people and Visitors

It is our policy to ensure, so far as is reasonably practicable, the health, safety and welfare of all employees, young people and visitors who may be directly affected by the activities of the Company as required by law is treated with the utmost importance.

The Write Time will, so far as is reasonably practicable:

1. Aim to achieve compliance with legal requirements through good occupational health and safety performance and with the provision of welfare facilities.
2. Provide adequate resources to implement this policy.
3. Establish and maintain a safe and healthy working environment.
4. Ensure that risks arising from work activities under our control are identified, recorded, adequately controlled, or eliminated.
5. Develop and implement appropriate occupational health and safety procedures, and safe working practices.
6. Include the management of health and safety as a specific responsibility of managers at all levels.
7. Ensure this policy is understood and implemented throughout the organisation.
8. Involve employees in health and safety decisions through consultation and cooperation.

9. Maintain workplaces under our control in a condition that is safe and without health risks.
10. Regularly review compliance with the policy and the management system that supports it.
11. Provide sufficient information, instruction and supervision for all employees to avoid hazards and contribute to their health and safety at work.
12. Ensure that employees receive appropriate training and are competent to carry out their designated responsibilities.

Responsibilities for health and safety

The following responsibilities have been assigned to competent people to enable us to meet the objectives of our health and safety policy.

10. Co-operate with management, colleagues, safety representatives and advisors promoting safe working practices.
11. Keep their work areas tidy and clear of hazards.
12. Report accidents, incidents and hazards they observe to their manager/ supervisor.

Important note for all staff, employees, and employers

All Health and Safety accidents, incidents, hazards, and near misses must be reported to Debbie Brindle-Carter. This is done by completing the Health and Safety/ Incident Log that is available to all employees on BrightSafe and in the administration office. Health and Safety must not be taken lightly, and as such, all staff at all levels are encouraged to 'over report' rather than 'under report'.

It is of paramount importance that all employees recognise that this log must be kept in the event of a 'near miss' concern as well as an actual occurrence.

Regarding Near Miss occurrences, the HSE states that:

Near-miss reporting

A simple, and potentially anonymous, system for reporting near-miss incidents is a very important way of identifying problem areas. This will help you highlight some of the less obvious hazards in a workplace or identify areas where a problem is developing.

Some models suggest that for every accident there are approximately ninety near-misses.

If there is a good reporting system in place, the hazard could be dealt with before someone is injured.

It can be difficult to get staff to report near-misses or minor slip accidents, as they are often seen as funny or embarrassing occurrences (until someone is hurt). It is important to create a culture which encourages reporting of these accidents.

BrightSafe terms a 'near miss' as a 'concern', and it is essential that this is highlighted/ checked when completing a near miss report on our MIS.

Fire Marshals (please see Fire Evacuation Plan for zone-allocated Fire Marshals)

Fire marshals are responsible for, in addition to any duties set out in this document or elsewhere, assisting in meeting the objectives of the health and safety policy, and in particular:

1. Be familiar with the organisational emergency procedures.
2. Taking appropriate and effective action if a fire occurs.
3. Identifying hazards in the workplace and recording and reporting their observations.
4. Ensuring that escape routes and doors are kept clear and available for use.
5. Ensuring fire doors are kept closed.
6. Checking suitable and sufficient notices are displayed.

If a fire is discovered, the fire marshals should:

- Ensure that the alarm has been raised.
- Check that manufacturing processes have been made safe.
- Collect roll call registers.
- Evacuate students and staff from the building or area involved and check that any staff or visitors with disabilities are assisted as planned.
- Ensure the fire service has been called.
- Go to the designated assembly point; The playground (basketball court).
- Conduct a roll call.
- Ensure all persons have been accounted for and remain in the roll call area until instructed otherwise.
- Report to the senior manager to confirm all persons are accounted for and report any persons missing.

FIRE MARSHALS MUST NEVER PUT THEMSELVES AT RISK WHILE UNDERTAKING THEIR ROLE

Fire drills will be carried out at least once per term to maintain standards, and practice evacuation strategies in preparation for actual emergencies.

First Aiders / Emergency Responders

First Aiders¹ and or emergency responders are responsible for, in addition to any duties set out in this document or elsewhere, assisting in meeting the objectives of the health and safety policy, and in particular:

1. Being familiar with the emergency procedures and ensuring suitable and sufficient notices are displayed detailing the procedures.
2. Maintaining their qualification status as an approved first aider/emergency responder.
3. Attending appropriate additional courses to maintain their expertise as required and remain up to date on the latest treatments.
4. Being aware of the various hazards likely to be the cause of injury and the appropriate first-aid treatment necessary.
5. Taking charge when someone is injured or falls ill and providing treatment or advice within the limits of their training and experience and ensuring the professional services have been contacted if necessary or requested.
6. Checking that appropriate and sufficient first-aid boxes are sited about the premises and that they are properly stocked and maintained.
7. Recording details of all accidents and treatments in the site accident book.
8. Ensure there is a medical room on site.
9. Ensuring the relevant Manager is advised of all accidents and incidents to ensure the appropriate investigations can be completed.

Part 4 – Security

All staff are responsible for ensuring that the premises is always safe and secure.

1. Access to the building is restricted to members of staff.
2. All young people and visitors are requested to use the intercom to gain access to the building.
