

Introduction

The Write Time curriculum is founded on the Glasser Quality Schools approach as expounded by Dr William Glasser. Key to the Glasser approach is the principles of Choice Theory and Reality Therapy. This successful approach has been used to support real change in the lives and behaviours of young people, as well as creating more effective schools, for over 20 years.

All of the young people who are referred to The Write Time have had previous experiences which make them vulnerable to underachievement and failure, and therefore undertaking education in a context based on the Quality School system will give them the opportunity to experience success and self-realisation. Because of this, each young person will begin his or her time at The Write Time by completing baseline assessments in all subjects before moving onto the full curriculum offer set out below.

1. Principles

- a. Promote equality and diversity and be consistent with and complementary to all other The Write Time Independent School policies.
- b. Meet the individual development needs and aspirations of learners according to the inclusive learning strategy of The Write Time Independent School.
 - i. There is a match between individual learners' needs and aspirations/wants and the programmes of study and support offered.
 - ii. All teaching teams will ensure an adapted and fluid delivery of learning programmes.
 - iii. All learners will have a Personal Development Plan which is supported through mentoring.
- c. Address national and local targets for education and training
 - i. The curriculum offered at The Write Time Independent School will extend participation in education, learning and training.
 - ii. The Write Time Independent School curriculum offer will be responsive to national initiatives ensuring that all students are fully prepared for life beyond The Write Time.
 - iii. The Write Time Independent School will provide a curriculum to raise achievement of young people.
 - iv. The Write Time Independent School curriculum will take account of the development of language, literacy, numeracy, and functional skills.
 - v. The Write Time Independent School curriculum will provide learners with a general understanding of the public institutions and public services that currently exist in England to further their independence and sustainability as adults.

- d. Provide learners with a full range of programmes of study and opportunities for progression.
 - i. Programmes of study will incorporate broad, fluid progression guidance (taken and applied directly from the assessment & marking policy) to allow learners to achieve their potential in externally validated qualifications.
- e. Provide learners with an entitlement curriculum.
 - i. All learners will be entitled to high quality teaching and learning which will encourage the development of skills required to become independent learners.
 - ii. All learners will be entitled to a coherent and soundly based curriculum that is responsive to the changing demands of the school and outside community
 - iii. All learners will be entitled to individual advice and guidance every day through a dedicated mentor. This is MATRIX accredited.
- f. Ensure that the curriculum offered is supported by appropriate plans and schemes of work for all the subjects taught, and that it is implemented effectively.
 - i. All staff will ensure that appropriate schemes of work are developed and adhered to along with appropriate assessment (i.e. AFL), behaviour management (BFL) and verification strategies, in line with The Write Time Independent School procedures.
- g. Ensure that partisan political views are not promoted in the teaching of any subject, whilst in attendance at The Write Time Independent School, or whilst taking part in extra-curricular activities which are provided or organised by The Write Time Independent School. This includes through the promotion of the school, and the distribution of promotional material.
- h. Promote British Values (democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty, mutual respect, and tolerance) as part of The Write Time curriculum and support the development of learners understanding of what it is to live and work in modern Britain today.
- i. Promote equality and diversity and be consistent with and complementary to all other policies.

The Write Time Leadership Team will review The Write Time School Curriculum policy (which feeds into the TWT self-assessment document) regularly and update it in line with new developments, and/or changes in awarding body specifications.

2. Theoretical Framework

The Write Time has three key philosophies that underpin the above, as well as our values of promoting education, high quality, supporting one another, and providing a safe environment. The three key philosophies are:

- Choice Theory,
- Kolb's Learning Cycle
- The Learning Zones Model.

Choice Theory is based on the principle that all we can give someone else is information, and everyone always has a choice to try and fulfil one of the five basic needs: love and belonging, power and self-worth, fun and enjoyment, survival, and freedom.

Kolb's Learning Cycle is a form of experiential learning which promotes learning by stealth, focusing on students planning, doing, reviewing, and then applying what they've learnt to a similar situation.

The Learning Zone model shows us how we can create learning situations, by moving students out of their comfort zone, i.e. things they already know, but not too far so as to take them into their panic zone. An example of this is students and their parents have to 'buy-in' and choose to use our services at induction, and this choice is assessed to ensure it's a fully informed one and genuine one; the mentor uses choice-theory-designed activities in mentoring to develop the student's soft skills; engaging activities involve the full range of key philosophies that stretch their comfort zones through learning by stealth and learner-led activities that involve choice; students are given the choice as to what qualification to choose but need to show commitment to that programme to be entered for it (the idea of choice with consequences); and then, using their personal development plan where students choose their path, the students work towards their positive destination.

4. Literacy and Oracy – Please refer to the Literacy and Oracy Policy for more details

All teachers are teachers of literacy. Language is the prime medium through which Pupils learn and express themselves across the curriculum, and therefore all staff have a role in supporting the development of effective literacy. As such, The Write Time School is committed to developing literacy and oracy skills in all of our pupils, in the belief that it will support their learning and raise standards across the curriculum. How well pupils speak, listen, read and write has a major influence on how well they do at school and in their futures.

The Write Time School believes that pupils should:

- Be able to speak with confidence and clarity.
- Have a suitable vocabulary with which they can articulate their response.
- Have an interest in books and read for enjoyment.
- Have an interest in words, their meanings and so develop a growing vocabulary in spoken and written forms.
- Read and write for communication and understanding.

We want to ensure that every pupil at The Write Time School is able to read, to understand text, decode and extend their knowledge by being exposed to different reading materials.

6. Curriculum Overview – flexible education packages at KS3 and KS4

Young People at The Write Time may sometimes require a more personalised education package, often made up of sessions both in school and in the community. These packages may be required because of their individual needs, previous experiences, the fact that they find a school environment very challenging, experience high levels of anxiety, or because they have a clear sense of the vocational direction they want to go in and want to engage more fully in the workplace.

In each case, The Write Time will work with parents/carers and the commissioner to ensure that an appropriate, highly bespoke package, that meets the needs and addresses barriers to learning for each individual young person is put in place. This package must refer to any EHCP targets and outcomes.

All flexible education packages include mentoring support delivered by experienced ODTs at the family home or in the community. Staff take a flexible and creative approach and can often address learning targets via ‘under the radar’ learning, framing a particular curriculum around individual interests and motivations of each student. The packages may include:

- College placements
- Online learning with a Quality Assured specialist provider
- Extended vocational placement
- Extended community placements
- Community Tutoring
- Work Experience

The ODT/mentors focus is on preparing young people for their next steps, which might be working towards full time attendance at The Write Time or another educational provision, or transition into vocational training or employment.

7. Soft Skills Matrix & PSD

Non-academic, personal and social development targets are measured and linked to the PDPs. Students are measured every two weeks through agreement with their mentor in one-to-one mentoring sessions. The weekly measurements will be in the areas of the 8 Personal and Social Skills (Positive Behaviour, Time management, Critical Thinking, Effort, Participation and Teamwork, Communication, Leadership, Negotiation and Conflict) and are developed using a cross-curriculum model.

Students will be able to judge themselves, with support of the mentor, based on recent events and discursive evidence to be clear about where they are on the scale of meeting expectations in each area.

8. Curriculum Overview – Community Learning

Our Community Learning offers all students at The Write Time the opportunity to explore their local and wider community areas, enabling them to stretch their comfort zones when in social situations and places of high sensory input. It is important to note that We use Kolb's Experiential Learning model to support students to develop greater understanding of the world around them and how things work.

9. Timetable at KS3 and KS4

Our timetable is split into two Key Stages, Key Stage 3, comprising 4 Nurture Groups, and 3 Key Stage 4 groups, comprising a Nurture Group, a functional skills group, and a GCSE group. For more information on this, please refer to the assessment and marking policy. Below is a table showing which subjects each group have including the number of lessons of each. It is important to note that due to the complex needs of a number of our learners some of them will be following highly individualised programmes and/or working towards integrating into the full timetable.

10. Curriculum Overview for KS5

Aim

To provide a personalised post 16 education pathway that supports young people into fulfilling lives through giving them the personal and vocational skills and attributes that they will need to be successful.

The post 16 provision will:

- meet requirements of the study programme for funding and Ofsted compliance
- maximise the opportunity to personalise the package for each learner and so create a pathway to community engagement and employment
- maximise opportunity to engage in supported work related and social learning
- meet and exceed the requirements of individual EHCP targets and will still have access to the therapies and support that pupils need to be successful
- be realistic about the stepped approach, and amount of support that the learners will need.
- Utilise Choice Theory so that each young person has a framework, and is empowered, to make good decisions about their future.

Content

The curriculum will meet, and exceed, the requirements of the study programme and meet personal targets from individual EHCPs.

Three days equivalent school-based core days. With 'catch-up' for students who have placement days.

- English - EL to L2
- Maths - EL to L2
- Kings Trust Level 2 (Diploma - Including Preparation for Adult Life and Employability)
- Arts Award
- BTEc First Hospitality at Level 1 and Level 2 Award and Extended Certificate Award - Ref: 600/7044/4 and Extended Certificate - Ref: 601/0231/7
- Tutorial/mentoring and CEIAG input
- Individual therapies

Two days equivalent employability and community education. An individual programme made up of different elements:

- School based practical projects preparing for community based and work-related learning opportunities and working towards Kings Trust Employability Skills. These will include environmental projects, community projects, running a business, all of which will contribute to the qualification
- Work experience placements
- Community placements with charities and social businesses

All learners will have a full-time programme of learning activity and so we will exceed study programme requirements – there will be no minimum offer. However, if a learner needs to start from a part-time programme as part of their induction or as a requirement of their EHCP then a staged move to full-time as fast as practicable will be planned for.

Appendix A – Curriculum Map

The Write Time Independent School is registered as an independent school and conforms to the standards of provision set out in the DfE Information Pack for the Registration of Independent Schools.

The following table sets out how The Write Time Independent School provides pupils with a broad and balanced curriculum. Where pupils are not registered with The Write Time for full-time provision, we work closely with their full-time educational provider (school/local authority) to ensure that the following provisions are in place.

Key Stage 3 & 4

Required Provision	Description	How This Is Provided
Linguistic	This area is concerned with developing pupils' communication skills and increasing their command of language through listening, speaking, reading, and writing. In all schools, there must be lessons in written and spoken English. Many schools will also teach other languages, and some will use a language other than English as the main medium of instruction.	Key Stage 3 English Functional Skills English. GCSE English Language.
Mathematical	This area helps pupils to make calculations, to understand and appreciate relationships and patterns in number and space, and to develop capacity to think logically and express themselves clearly. Their knowledge and understanding of Mathematics should be developed in a variety of ways, including practical activity, exploration, and discussion.	Key Stage 3 Maths, Functional Skills Maths; GCSE Maths; Employability; Sports Science; PSHE, Food Tech, PE and Sport, Community Learning

Pupils should also acquire knowledge and understanding of the basic principles of fitness and health.	PE for all Key Stages, Leadership Award (I Can lead), Prince's Trust and AIM VOC unitised awards to recognise physical activities.
Aesthetic & Creative	This area is concerned with the processes of making, composing, and inventing.
